INTRODUCTION

(The guide is not intended to provide legal advice and should not be used as a substitute for legal guidance.)

This 2020 Campaign Guide provides candidates, campaign committees, political groups, the media, and voters with an overview of Wyoming statutes governing campaigns and campaign finance reporting for state and local candidates, political action committees, political parties, and organizations. The guide is a resource on the legal requirements and restrictions on campaigning (fundraising, accepting & making contributions, reporting contributions and expenditures, and political advertising).

In all matters, the Wyoming Election Code is the final authority. Changes enacted by the Wyoming Legislature may alter dates or other information in this guide. Readers should review the current statutes and consult with an attorney for legal advice concerning specific situations.

Candidates for federal office, such as U.S. Senate or House, their committees, and PACs supporting candidates for federal offices are required to file with the Federal Election Commission.

Who is a Candidate?

Wyoming law defines a candidate as follows:

“Candidate” means any person who knowingly seeks nomination or election to public office by:

- (A) Filing an application for nomination by primary election, nomination by political party convention or by petition for nomination;
- (B) Write-in, except that this subparagraph shall not apply to a person elected to public office by write-in at a general or special election who did not seek or campaign for election to the office;
- (C) Forming a campaign committee; or
- (D) Receiving contributions or making expenditures, or giving consent for any individual to receive contributions or make expenditures, in order to secure nomination or election to public office.

W.S. 22-1-102(a)(liii).

Wyoming statutes on campaign finance apply to candidates, candidate campaign committees, and PACs supporting candidates for Governor, Secretary of State, State Auditor, State Treasurer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, State Legislature, County Offices, School Boards and Community College Boards of Trustees, and Municipal Offices.

Federal Candidates & PACs: Candidates for U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives, candidate campaign committees and PACs supporting candidates for federal offices are required to file with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), 1050 First Street, NE, Washington, D.C., 20463. FEC’s toll-free telephone number is (800) 424-9530 and the website address is <http://www.fec.gov/>.

FILING CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTS

In an election year, candidates, candidate campaign committees, and PACs are required to file reports before each election. A report on contributions and expenditures is due between seven (7) and fourteen (14) days before each election (Primary, General, & Special).

Ongoing candidate committees and PACs are required to file an annual report by December 31st in odd-numbered years (non-election years) reporting their contributions and expenditures. If the committees are supporting a candidate who is not running for election that year, they are still required to file the Primary and General reports.

HOW AND WHERE TO FILE YOUR REPORTS

Who?	How?	Where?
Local candidates, candidate committees for county and municipal offices, and local PACs W.S. 22-25-107(a)(i)	Paper Forms*	County Clerk
*These forms may be found at: http://sos.wyo.gov/forms/default.aspx?root=Elections

 You must file electronically at: https://www.wycampaignfinance.gov

IMPORTANT: Candidates are required to file campaign finance reports. If a candidate chooses to have a campaign committee, both the candidate and the committee must file reports. Please see page 16 regarding penalties for late filing.

OR

The committee may file reports on behalf of the candidate. This is only if a candidate has formed a candidate's campaign committee. (Even if the candidate does not receive or spend any money, or if his election bid is unsuccessful, reports must be filed.) W.S. 22-25-106(j).

CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTING – TIPS & GUIDELINES

Prior to filing for office, a candidate may accept contributions and make expenditures.

- Fully itemize all contributions over $100. Contributions of $100 or more must be itemized by contributor, amount, date received, city and state of the contributor. All contributions under $100 shall be reported, but need not be itemized. However, if you receive $60 from a contributor who later gives you $50, you must itemize the total $110 contribution. W.S. 22-25-106(a)(iv).
- Ticket Sales for Fundraisers: If the ticket price is $100 or more, the name and address of each ticket purchaser and purchase price of ticket(s) must be itemized under “receipts.” If the ticket price is under $100, the fundraiser does not have to be itemized and needs only to be reported under “unitemized contributions.”
- Anonymous contributions are contributions whose origin cannot be determined, i.e., “pass the hat” contributions. Anonymous contribution does not mean that an individual may contribute to a candidate with the understanding the contributor’s name will not be reported. The campaign reporting forms have a specific section to record anonymous contributions where the candidate attests that he/she does not know the origin of the contribution.
- Contributions also include donations of any items of value, services, or election assistance provided for a candidate. These “in-kind” contributions must be itemized by name, city and state of the contributor, date, item or service donated, and estimated value of the donated item or service.
- Each expenditure must be itemized by date expended, name, city and state of the person or business to which the expenditure is made, and the purpose and amount of the expenditure. Examples are: Advertising and printing expenses, expenses for services of a campaign consultant or public relations firm, office space, etc.
- Campaign expenditures that are not required to be reported include: Filing fee to run for office, a candidate’s own personal campaign expenses for travel, meals, and checking account service charges. W.S. 22-25-103(b).
- A candidate is not required to report advertising expenses by a party central committee for the candidate if the entire slate of candidates below national level is advertised. This applies even though all candidates are not included in each advertisement, as long as the expenses for each candidate are substantially the same. W.S. 22-25-103(c).
- If there are additional contributions and expenditures after a report has been filed, an amendment to the report must be filed. Amendments to filed reports must be made within 30 days from the time an error or additional contributions and expenditures become known. Net changes amounting to less than $200 do not need to be reported. W.S. 22-25-106(e).

*The primary, general, and special elections are deemed separate elections.

No Limit "...provided the contributions are available to use as the appropriate party authorities choose and are not exclusively dedicated to any particular candidate. Contributions donated to political parties which are designated by the donor to be used only for a particular candidate and no other purposes are subject to the limitations..." W.S. 22-25-102(f).

Contributions donated to a PAC which are designated by the donor to be used only for a particular candidate and no other purpose are subject to the individual contribution limitations. W.S. 22-25-102(m).

CAMPAIGN ADVERTISING

Campaign literature does not include small campaign items such as bumper stickers, pens, pencils, buttons, rulers, nail files, balloons and yard signs displaying the name of the candidate or office sought.

Candidates, candidate committees, PACs and organizations are required to comply with W.S. 22-25-110, campaign advertising in communications media. All campaign advertising must include a written or spoken, "paid for by" line disclosing the candidate, committee, PAC, or organization that paid for the advertisement. A few examples of how to properly utilize this disclosure requirement are listed below:

1. Jane Doe is running for the legislature. She doesn't form a committee. Jane decides to buy an ad in the newspaper. The "paid for by" line should read "Paid for by Jane Doe."
2. Jane Doe decides to form a committee. The committee's name is Committee to Elect Jane Doe. The committee then buys ads for Jane. The "paid for by" line should read "Paid for by the Committee to Elect Jane Doe."
3. Jane has four friends who buy a newspaper ad supporting her candidacy. They do not consult with Jane candidate or coordinate with her committee. Each friend pitches in money for the ad. The "paid for" line should read "Paid for by Bill Jones, Connie Smith, Tom Williams and Julie Noe," or their signatures could be a part of the ad and read "Paid for by the Individuals Signing Above." (Note: This is an "independent expenditure" which neither Jane nor her committee needs to report.)
4. A group of Jane's friends want to support her candidacy, but they do not form a PAC or a candidate's campaign committee. They buy an ad which has a "paid for by" line which reads "Paid for by Friends of Jane Doe" but they do not list their names in the advertisement. THIS IS ILLEGAL. In this scenario, individual names are required.
5. Jane's good friend, Bill Jones, buys a newspaper ad supporting Jane. He pays for the ad personally. No disclosure on the ad is required.
6. Jane Doe is a member of the Cowboy Party. The Cowboy Party buys an ad for Jane. (This is allowed only if Jane is the only Cowboy Party candidate running in the primary election, or if she is the Cowboy Party candidate for the general election.) The "paid for by" line should read "Paid for by Wyoming Cowboy Party" or "Paid for by the Wilson County Cowboy Party," depending on whether it is the state or county party.

Other advertisements:

Radio: the "paid for by" lines must be spoken.

Television/Digital: the "paid for by" lines must be spoken and/or appear on the screen.

- “Independent Expenditure” means an expenditure that is made without consultation or coordination with a candidate or an agent of a candidate whose nomination or election the expenditure supports or whose opponent’s nomination or election the expenditure opposes. W.S. 22-25-101(c)(iii)

W.S. 22-25-101(c)(i)

POLITICAL PARTIES

No political party funds shall be expended directly or indirectly in aid of the nomination of any one person against another person of the same political party running in the primary election. In the general election, a party may specifically contribute to their party's candidate for office. W.S. 22-25-104.

- Electronic filing of the campaign finance report: Each state party and county central committee must electronically file an itemized Statement of Contributions and Expenditures using the Wyoming Campaign Finance Information System (WYCFIS).
 - Must be filed within ten (10) days after the general or special election.
 - The report must include all contributions and expenditures relating to campaign expenses, including all normal operating expenses from the time the report was filed for the previous general election to the filing deadline for the current general election.
 - This means any financial party activity done in odd-numbered years must be reported. To electronically file reports, go to <https://www.wycampaignfinance.gov>
- Contributions and expenditures report shall attribute all campaign contributions, expenses and obligations to a specific candidate only if the campaign contributions, expenses and obligations can be specifically identified to that specific candidate to the exclusion of other candidates on the ticket.
 - If a candidate is identified in the statement, the party committee must provide a copy of the report to the candidate within ten (10) days after the general or special election. The report must be signed by the chairman or an officer designated by the chairman. W.S. 22-25-106(d).
- Organizations affiliated with a political party, such as Young Democrats or Republican Women's Club, should check with their respective party authority to determine whether the party's internal governance allows direct contributions to candidates. W.S. 22-25-102(f).

VIOLATING THE CAMPAIGN PRACTICES ACT

Anyone violating any provision of the Wyoming Campaign Practices Act may be guilty of a misdemeanor or felony resulting in a fine, incarceration, or both. Any corporation, person or organization violating the contribution limits or prohibited acts is subject to a civil penalty up to $10,000. Civil action may be brought by any candidate adversely affected by the transgression, by any political party or by a prosecuting authority.

Campaign Finance Reporting Violations

Candidates, committees, organizations or political parties who fail to file required campaign finance reports within the stipulated times are subject to civil penalties. A candidate failing to file shall have their name printed on a publicly available list drafted by the appropriate filing office. The candidate will also be notified by mail that they will have 21 days to file the delinquent report or be subject to civil penalties.

If a late filer fails to file within the 21 day window, the appropriate filing office, or county attorney, will issue a final order imposing a civil penalty. The civil penalties are: $500.00 for a failure to file with the secretary of state, and $200.00 for a failure to file with the county clerk. Candidates authorizing a campaign committee to file on their behalf will be jointly and severally liable with the officers of their committee for the fine.

Within 20 days of the date of the final order's issuance, a person may request reconsideration. They must submit documentation to the appropriate filing office or county attorney showing good cause. The filing office or county attorney may waive a civil penalty upon a showing of good cause. A decision to not waive a civil penalty is subject to the contested case procedures of the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act. A decision by a county attorney to not waive a civil penalty is appealable to a circuit court of appropriate jurisdiction.

A civil penalty imposed on a person shall be paid within 30 days of the final order, or 30 days of the date a decision denying reconsideration is issued. Any penalty that is not paid within the required time shall bear interest at a rate of 18% per annum until it is paid or collected. Please note, however, interest will not accrue when a penalty is being reviewed by a court or during the pendency of a contested case proceeding.

The secretary of state will notify the attorney general of all delinquent penalties. A delinquent penalty may be recovered in an action brought in the name of the state of Wyoming in any court of appropriate jurisdiction.

W.S. 22-25-108.

ELECTION COMPLAINTS

Any person suspecting a violation of the Wyoming Election Code may file a written complaint with the secretary of state for matters pertaining to statewide and legislative candidates, committees, organizations or violations of W.S. 22-25-106(d) by a county party central committee. Any person may file a written complaint with the county clerk regarding any violation of the Election Code by any county or municipal candidate, committee or organization.

For complaints filed with the secretary of state, if the secretary of state finds the complaint has merit and suspects a violation of the Election Code, he shall refer the complaint to the Wyoming attorney general. The attorney general may prosecute the complaint in the district court where the violation was alleged to occur.

For complaints filed with the county clerk, if the county clerk finds the complaint has merit and suspects a violation of the Election Code, the county clerk shall refer the complaint to the district attorney for the county in which the candidate resides for investigation and prosecution.

Complaints alleging an Election Code violation by the secretary of state shall be filed with the attorney general for investigation and prosecution. Complaints that the county clerk violated the Election Code shall be filed with the district attorney for the county for investigation and prosecution.

The secretary of state or county clerk are also permitted to report suspected violations of the Election Code to the appropriate prosecuting authority.

A complaint of a violation of false voting or other registration offenses shall be filed with the county clerk to be investigated by the county sheriff. If a county clerk fails or refuses to take action, suspected violations may be filed with the attorney general.
