State Treasurer Mark Gordon and Secretary of State Ed Murray Joint Media Release

State Capitol – State Treasurer Mark Gordon and Secretary of State Ed Murray issued a joint media release to announce that Deputy Secretary of State Pat Arp is resigning from her position as Deputy Secretary of State to accept the position of Deputy State Treasurer effective later in April.

“Deputy Arp has been a real asset to the state for many years and I am very pleased that she will be joining my Office as Deputy State Treasurer. After 36 years with state government, 15 of those years serving as Deputy State Treasurer, Sharon Garland has announced her plans to retire in early April. I wish Sharon the very best as she fulfills future dreams and I look forward to working with Deputy Arp and to my continued relationship with Secretary Murray.” State Treasurer Gordon stated.

“Deputy Arp has been invaluable to the office of the Secretary of State for over twenty years and her contributions during that time will be appreciated for years to come. We will all miss her dearly and I personally extend my very best wishes both to her and my friend Treasurer Gordon,” said Secretary Murray.

“I’ve been incredibly fortunate to be able to serve as the Deputy Secretary of State for over 20 years. I have loved my job and the people I have served with,” Arp said. “Who would not want to serve as the Deputy State Treasurer in a State as financially blessed as Wyoming. Moving to the position of Deputy State Treasurer is a wonderful opportunity for me,” Arp concluded.
