Secretary of State's Office: Absentee Voting for General Election Underway

CHEYENNE, WY – Secretary of State Ed Murray is reminding everybody that absentee voting is taking place in all counties throughout Wyoming for the General Election. All Wyoming citizens who are registered to vote may vote absentee either by requesting an absentee ballot from their County Clerk or by going to their Clerk's office. For a list of Wyoming's County Clerks, visit: <http://soswy.state.wy.us/Elections/Docs/WYCountyClerks.pdf>

“I am pleased to announce on National Voter Registration Day that absentee voting is now underway across Wyoming. Registering to vote is an essential step on the path to casting a vote. Now that absentee voting is underway, you can register to vote with your county clerk's office and cast a ballot at the same time. I encourage all Wyoming citizens to take the time to become informed and cast their ballot between now and November 8th,” said Secretary Murray.

The Secretary of State's Office is encouraging Wyoming's youth to consider attending the 2016 Youth Voter Summit in Laramie, Wyoming at the University of Wyoming Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center on October 4th as part of Secretary Murray's efforts to increase voter turnout of 18-24 year olds.
