Wyoming Secretary of State's Office Participates in Kindness Wyoming

CHEYENNE, WY –Secretary Murray and the Wyoming Secretary of State's Office join Kindness Wyoming in promoting acts of kindness across the State during Random Acts of Kindness Week (February 12-18). Starting this week every piece of mailed correspondence sent out by the Secretary of State's Office will include the "Cultivating Kindness" logo.

"A small act of kindness can be as easy as a smile or a kind word. One simple act of kindness directed at a friend, a coworker, or a complete stranger, may have a profound impact on that person's day or even their life. Whether in good times or in bad, acts of kindness don't cost a thing! We hope to do our part with this logo and inspire individuals across Wyoming to 'Cultivate Kindness'," said Secretary Murray.

Random Acts of Kindness Week is an initiative started by Kindness Wyoming. Kindness Wyoming is a project of Leadership Wyoming's 2017 Class. For more information on Kindness Wyoming, visit: <http://www.kindnesswyoming.org/>.
