Statement from Secretary of State Ed Murray Regarding Request of Voter Information for Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity

CHEYENNE, WY – After carefully considering the request for voter information from the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity, Secretary of State Ed Murray has decided to decline providing any Wyoming voter information.

Secretary of State Ed Murray stated: “I am going to safeguard the privacy of Wyoming’s voters because of my strong belief in a citizen’s right of privacy. Furthermore, I believe elections are the responsibility of the states under the United States Constitution and I do believe this request could lead to a federal overreach. Finally, in reviewing the Commission’s request, I am not at all convinced that it has clearly stated its purpose is connected to the information requested.

Secretary Murray further stated: “Wyoming’s elections are secure, fair, transparent and well-run. I assure every Wyoming citizen that I will safeguard the privacy of Wyoming’s voters while continuing to uphold and protect the integrity of Wyoming’s elections.”
