Wyoming Secretary of State Ed Murray Selected for National Leadership Position

CHEYENNE, WY – Wyoming Secretary of State Ed Murray has been selected to serve on the Executive Board for the National Association of Secretaries of State (NASS). He was selected and sworn in as the Western Region Vice-President last week at the conclusion of the NASS 2017 Summer Conference in Indianapolis, Indiana. The Western Region encompasses 13 states: Wyoming, Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, and Washington.

“I’m really honored to have been chosen by my fellow Secretaries of State to serve in this leadership position, and I look forward to standing strong for our western heritage and the issues important to us,” said Secretary Murray upon his swearing in.

Secretary Murray will serve a one-year term ending in July, 2018. NASS is the nation's oldest nonpartisan professional organization for state officials.
